In addition to our course fees Cordie can now offer our students an all-inclusive price which also includes 5 x CIPS exam fees and the 5 x CIPS official course books. There is also a small administration charge included in the price for this option.

Exam Fees

When selecting the all-inclusive option the price will also cover the cost of 5 x CIPS exam fees plus the exam centre charges for 5 exams. All exams will be booked for the student by Cordie as soon as bookings are opened by CIPS.

NB: Exam re-sits are not covered in this price and once booked with Cordie, the exam fees and exam centre charges are non-refundable. Any exam cancellations or alterations required by the student must be arranged and paid-for directly with CIPS.

CIPS Official Course Books

The all-inclusive price also covers the cost of 5 x CIPS official course books plus postage & packaging. Please note these course books are non-refundable.

Notes:

1. Each study unit is taught over a period of two consecutive days supported by tutor-guided 'homework' and remote tutor support where appropriate, prior to the exam.
2. Lunch refreshments are provided at the New Forest, Henley and Bristol Study Centres, but are not provided at the London and Leicester Study Centres.
3. All prices exclusive of VAT at +20.0%.
4. Please note that the Cordie Booking Terms and Conditions apply in respect to all of these services. A copy of which is available on the booking form.
5. It is generally recommended that students will require some additional reading to support their studies. In most cases, the CIPS Official Course Book is sufficient (price £37.50 directly from the CIPS Bookshop <http://bookshop.cips.org/>). However, for some study units, we will provide guidance on alternative books or study guides that are helpful. Please contact us for further details.
