Notes concerning this timetable:

- All exam assessments are online computer-based at a CIPS exam centre and you are reminded that capacity may be limited. Availability is purely on a "first-come, first-served" basis and so you are advised to book as early as possible to secure your place.
- This version of the Cordie Study Timetable accounts for our contingency arrangements in response to the covid-19 pandemic and the cancellation of CIPS exams for the March and May exam series. It also introduces the new "Virtual Study Centre".
- Unless otherwise shown, all study workshops are face-to-face teaching workshops at the locations shown. Our contingency arrangements highlight study modules that have been changed to remote online web-based classes in a virtual classroom environment.
- The Virtual Study Centre offers condensed 1-day tuition workshops for 6-credit study modules in our online "virtual classroom" environment, supported with comprehensive e-learning materials. This is web-based delivery only.
- Please note that all classroom-based teaching may be subject to social-distancing measures in line with the current government and venue policies in force at the time of the study workshop.
- Please contact our office if you are unsure about how these contingency arrangements affect you or your bookings. A timetable for 2021 has now been released.
